VALLEY VIEW CASINO & HOTEL APPOINTS TWO TEAM MEMBERS TO EXECUTIVE LEVELS IN ANTICIPATION OF UPCOMING $50 MILLION EXPANSION COMPLETION

VALLEY CENTER, CA – MAY 29, 2019 – San Diego’s Favorite® Casino recently appointed two of their team members to executive levels in preparation of the completion of their $50 million newly expanded and completely renovated Valley View Casino & Hotel. They have recruited a highly skilled executive chef, Denis Soriano, to oversee the dining experience of all seven F&B venues, following the luxurious expansion that will be complete in less than 30 days. Valley View Casino & Hotel has also promoted their Slot Tech Manager of 16 years, David Spence, to be their new Director of Slot Operations.

This expansion, which began last year, is set to be completed in June. By adding 43,000 of additional square footage, Valley View will increase the size of their casino, restaurant and bar space to 143,000 ft. One of the most exciting features of the expansion, completed in February of this year, is the new, larger and more elegant award-winning Maine Lobster Buffet. The dining room has been expanded to include 100 additional seats, bringing the total seat count to 600, minimizing wait times tremendously. Guests will be delighted to not only enjoy the upscale new furnishings but will also experience an expanded award-winning menu that includes 25 new soups, salads, breads, entrées and dessert options. In addition to these new choices, the Buffet will continue to serve their popular Maine Lobster, Alaskan king crab, jumbo shrimp, slow roasted prime rib, freshly prepared sushi, homemade desserts and many other favorites from Italy, Asia, Mexico, and the USA, seven days a week.

Denis Soriano, who most recently held the title of Executive Chef position at one of the prestigious Wolfgang Puck Restaurants, joined the award-winning Food & Beverage staff last month to lead the newly expanded food program.

“My favorite quote is, ‘always follow your dreams.’ I really enjoy my new position and I’m excited about the challenges of what’s to come. My team of expert culinarians and I will be responsible for creating the most extravagant and memorable culinary experiences for the already highly esteemed Valley View Casino & Hotel Food & Beverage program,” says Denis Soriano, Executive Chef of Valley View Casino & Hotel.

“We are fortunate to have a globally inspired Executive Chef such as Denis. He brings with him a passion and dimension of foods that are truly remarkable. His immense knowledge of flavor profiles, ingredients and utilization of seasonal peak varieties will bring our culinary program to an even higher level than we enjoy today,” says Howard Silver, Vice President of Food & Beverage and Hotel Operations.

Soriano is up for the challenge, as he plans on showcasing his entire exotic culinary repertoire and elevating the award-winning Valley View Casino & Hotel to even greater heights.

“Denis’ passion is more than just cooking, it is sharing the knowledge of the craft that he has learned and has been passed down from generation to generation to his team. We are thrilled to have Denis join us. We look forward to his amazing contributions in continuing to make Valley View Casino the best dining destination,” says Silver.

In gaming, David Spence, previous Slot Tech Manager at Valley View since 2004 has been promoted to Director of Slot Operations.

“I have worked at three casino properties and my career path has truly arrived at Valley View Casino & Hotel. This is not only home to the most awesome and friendly people I have ever met but allows me to continue the wonderful experience within one of the most exhilarating and festive sectors of the Entertainment Industry,” says David Spence, Director of Slot Operations

Spence will oversee 27,000 ft. of additional gaming space, including a brand-new slot tournament area. Spence assures the experience for all guests will be first-class, extravagant, entertaining and memorable.

“It has been a pleasure working with David over the years at Valley View Casino & Hotel. His promotion is well deserved, and I know he will make an exceptional Director of Slot Operations during this exciting new chapter at Valley View Casino & Hotel,” says Randy Reedy, Vice President of Gaming Operations.
